

João Ramalho Dias

Associate Banking & Finance

(+351) 21 311 3400

jrd@vda.pt

João Ramalho Dias joined VdA in 2020. He is an Associate in the Banking & Finance practice, where he has been particularly involved in capital markets transactions (debt and equity transactions, including initial public offerings). He also works on regulatory matters, having participated in the incorporation and registration of several companies in the financial sector, as well as providing legal advice to credit institutions in consumer credit transactions.

In addition, João regularly advises FinTech companies on peer-to-peer (P2P), payment services, digital currency, crypto-assets and blockchain related matters.

Academic background

Law degree, University of Lisbon, Faculty of Law.

Completed the curricular part of a Master's in Law & Business, Católica - Lisbon School of Business and School of Law.

Post-graduation in Corporate Governance, Lisbon Centre for Research in Private Law (CIDP), University of Lisbon.

Other professional background

Before joining the firm, João carried out a summer internship at Garrigues Portugal in the Mercantile Department, in 2019.

Member of

Admitted to the Portuguese Bar Association.

Languages

English.