

Catarina Milagre

Senior Associate Energy & Natural Resources

(+351) 21 311 3400

CMN@vda.pt

Catarina Milagre joined VdA in 2021. She is Senior Associate at the Energy & Natural Resources practice where she has been particularly dedicated to the energy sector and its regulation as well as she has been actively involved in several transactions for the development, implementation, and financing of projects in the energy sector.

Academic background

Law degree, University of Lisbon, Faculty of Law.

Masters in Law, University of Lisbon, Faculty of Law.

Postgraduate course in Habitation and Urban Planning Law, University of Lisbon, Faculty of Law.

Postgraduate course in Energy Law, Portuguese Catholic University, Faculty of Law.

Course on the Legal Regime of Electric Mobility, by the Faculty of Law of Universidade Nova.

Pedagogical Training Course for tutoring and teaching, by the B-Training Academy.

Other professional background

Previously, Catarina was actively involved in the areas of energy, urban planning, construction, and real estate, under which she provided legal advice on the urban and energy licensing of various projects, with emphasis on projects in the area of renewable energies, in the public and private sectors. Having also followed several real estate transactions and participated in the licensing of different types of projects, in the sectors of housing, tourism and industry, with special focus on projects of local accommodation and touristic developments, where she actively participated in the incorporation and regularization of several hotels, aparthotels and touristic groups, in its various components.

Member of

Admitted to the Portuguese Bar Association.

Member of APDEN - Portuguese Energy Association.

Languages

English, French, Spanish.